THE coup d'étal by which the Tai Woo kon has made himself once more master of the situation in Soul has been a complete surprise, but onexpected and sudden as it is, it has not produced any deep sense of astonishment among the journalists of Tokyo, for they consider the event to be in complete keeping with the political methods traditionally familiar in the ill-fated poninsula. The comments that the affair has elicited, in so far as concern its bearing upon the general situation in the Eest, are various and characteristic. Japan Mail.

THE forty-five Korean students imported by Count Inouys attempted to run away from Tokyo the night they heard of the coup detat in Soul. Count Inouve lectured them on their folly next day, Oct. 10th, and, though they all seemed to concur in his views, thirty-six of them secaped that night. The Count caught them at Shimbashi milway station, and begged of them to postpone their flight, but this they refused to do. Then Induye asked them to give him a 'chit' certifying that he had done his best to detain them. This they did cheerfully and then went on their way, while the Count returned home. -Japan Advertiser.

SUPREME COURT. IN APPELLATE JURISDICTION. (Before the Full Court.) Wednesday, Oct. 23.

THE INTERMINABLE OPIUM CASE.

The case of four chests of opium, seized cis, Q.C., instructed by Mr H. L. Dennys, was for the respondents.

In the first instance the police had prosecuted the beatman for illegally moving opium during prohibited hours. The Magistrate Mr Wodehouse, convicted, and the conviction was quashed by the Court of dealing with illegal removal, the person to be punished is not the actual coolis or boatman who moved the opium, but the owner or person responsible for employing coolies Corea, where they would be a continual to move it. Accordingly, the police then charged the owner of the four chests; but Mr Wedshouse dismissed the case without calling on the defence. The Crown now appealed against his verdict of dismissal. The position was that the Magistrate had been acting as judgeand jury; and he as judge directed himself is jury to find that there was no case, and the appellants

Mr Francis urged that the Farmer might have only authorised a legal removal in proper hours, and might give the opium and the permit to the bostman for that purpose,
